December 2015

"This and That" from Julie

Time is passing quickly isn't it? Before we know it the New Year will be here. Time to make resolutions. Time to keep promises to yourself about staying healthy, eating better, taking more walks, ooooh and how about learning (teaching) a new song! I'm sure Christine has openings in our schedule for you to help out. Just ask her.

Remember that our December meeting is a POTLUCK and that the doors will open at 11:30. Our weather has held out so far, here's hoping for that day to be clear. The club will provide coffee/tea. Bring a dish to pass and tableware. After we eat, we jam!

Have you seen the new AP? Check out "i dulcimer" and there's an AP you can purchase to turn your iPad, (but not on an android) into a mini dulcimer to play with your fingers! You can select soft or hard sided hammer sounds too. It's soooooo cool! You can literally take the dulcimer ANYWHERE now!

Awesome :)

See you at the meeting!

Workshop Corner by Christine Stewart

Thank you so much Barb for last months tune. An old tune that I think many will enjoy when we play out. Hope you all had a thankful Thanksgiving day and didn't over eat too much.

No workshop this month. Instead we will enjoy jammin' an' eatin'. Wonderful potluck and wonderful music. But...don't forget to let me know which song you are dying to learn in our January meeting!

CHRISTMAS PARTY!

Doors will open at 11:30 eating at 12. Bring a passing dish, table service and an appetite!

In leu of a gift exchange for Christmas, how about we bring in canned goods for the needy. Whatever is brought in will go to help fill the food pantry for the Spring Arbor Methodist church. I'm sure they will appreciate everything that comes their way.
